A Nylon string acoustic guitar is highly recommended. Steel-string and electric guitars are discouraged and not recommended.

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Student Learning Outcome #1: Through study and practice, the student will demonstrate the ability to read and create sound from basic music notation including traditional melodic notation, chord symbols, and tablature by performing in solo and group settings.
2. Student Learning Outcome #2: Through study and practice, the student will comprehend very basic music theory.
3. Student Learning Outcome #3: Through study and practice, the student will demonstrate proper guitar-playing technique.
4. Student Learning Outcome #4: After attending a professional guitar-related event or concert, students will think critically, use correct terminology, and synthesize concepts.
5. Student Learning Outcome #5: Students will display knowledge of a breadth of musical types, styles, times periods and cultures.

Student Assessment

Students will be assessed by the instructor through performance testing, in-class performances, discussions, written exams, writing assignments which also include writing about music of various styles, time periods, and cultures.

Content:

In order to form basic playing position habits, learn correct performance techniques and fundamental music reading skills, the following will be emphasized:

1. Proper posture for holding the instrument.
2. Correct use of plucking/picking hand to produce sound.
3. Correct use of fretting hand to finger pitches.
4. Development of basic technique—combination of left and right hand.
5. Learning to play basic chords.
6. Learning to read pitch notation.
7. Learning to read rhythmic notation and play it.
8. Learning simple meter and compound meter.
9. Learning keys and key signatures as applicable to beginning guitar.
10. Learning first position.
11. Learning to accompany songs with use of chords.
12. Learning the enjoyment of the process of mastering an instrument and the preparing of music for performance.
13. Discussion of what constitutes “quality” in music.

Methods

EVALUATION

1. Your course grade will derive from four written tests (20 points each) to assess whether or not the students have comprehended the material presented in class.
2. Each student will take periodic Proficiency Achievement Standard (60 points) performance tests, to ascertain whether or not learning and improvement has taken place.
3. Written homework assignments (10 pts).
4. Written final exam (50 pts).
5. Class participation - student begins with 75 pts and will lose 2 points for each class session that the student fails to participate (such as not bringing guitar to class) or is not prepared to play assignments.
6. All students are expected to participate in the end of the semester FCC Six-String Guitar Showcase on May 9, 2012, OAB Theater, 7:30 p.m.(25 pts). Guest Artist: Grammy Award winner, Scott Tennant. All guitar classes will prepare music for this performance. Dress rehearsal 5:00 p.m.
7. How well the student handles these assignments-based on the acquired knowledge and skills—will, in part, determine the grade.

Taking any test late (after scheduled date) will result in 3 points being subtracted from the score earned. Tests may be made up within one (1) week of the scheduled date, unless student was ill from the original date and instructor was notified within deadline.

MISSED FINAL MAY NOT BE MADE UP.

ENROLLMENT

It is the student's responsibility to add or drop a class, when he/she no longer wishes to be enrolled. Failure to drop when the student no longer wishes to be enrolled will result in an "F" in this course. See current class schedule for important deadlines. The instructor may drop you after the 3rd absence prior to the drop deadline (3/10/12). Roll will be taken at the beginning of every class session. If you are tardy it is your responsibility to inform the instructor. Leaving after roll is taken will be equal to an absence.

GROUND RULES

You are expected to attend all class sessions. A student who is continuously absent may be dropped by the instructor, provided the absences occur prior to the drop deadline. Talking, playing, listening to Ipods, texting, or running "riffs" while the instructor is lecturing or demonstrating is unacceptable and can lead to dismissal from this course. This also includes cell phones. Please turn off all cell phones during class time. Don't spoil the learning opportunity by distracting others. As a student at FCC, you are responsible to uphold the rules, regulations and requirements found in the FCC catalog and schedule of classes.

Early Alert

In an effort to ensure you have the supports necessary to flourish and achieve your academic goals, Fresno City College has an Early Alert referral program. If I feel you could benefit from additional support outside of the classroom, I may make a referral.

If you have a verified need for an academic accommodation or materials in alternate media (i.e. Braille, large print, electronic text, etc.) per the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) or Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, please contact me as soon as possible. If you think you have a learning disability but have not had it verified, Disabled Students Programs and Services (DSP&S) may be able to assist you. All information will be kept confidential.
